Notification.

The following scheme of precautionary measures to be adopted during the ensuing car Venkataramanaswami festival at Hanagere in Krishnarajpete Taluk which commences from the 7th proximo is issued for information of the general public in the interests of the public safety and welfare:—

1. The several shops that are to be located in the Jatra premises should be allowed to be constructed in lines leaving an intervening space between shops, and leaving a space of 7 feet from the line, drains on either side of the roads to avoid accidents, obstruction etc.

2. Sweetmeat shops, coffee clubs and hotels should not be allowed to be located in a line with or adjacent to other shops and to avert danger, a separate one should be provided for locating them as they will always have to keep the fire or ovens alive.

3. Temple Premises.—Inside the compound the temple verandah should be bar-fenced so as to have separate ingress and egress for males and females. The pilgrims who visit the shrines to offer prayers should not be allowed in a body to get into the temple but by batches of such numbers as can conveniently be accomodated. The temple proper should not be allowed to be polluted by persons making the Temple their halting and resting place.

4. Cattle Faire.—Cattle that gather should not be allowed to be exhibited close to the high road. They should be made to stand in places and in lines specially to be allowed for such purposes.

5. Motor vehicles plying for hire for pilgrims should on no accounts run through the Jatra ground but must stand in the place fixed for the purpose.

6. As regards pleasure cars the speed in the Jatra premises should not exceed six miles per hour and danger posts should be fixed up in all corners and other dangerous places for drivers to take precaution.

7. In all licenses granted to the articles, etc. there should be a condition that they have one hundred pots of water ready at all times to meet emergencies. The theatres should have at least four doors for ingress and egress.
